

Mixed Earners Unemployment Compensation

What is the MEUC program? It provides eligible individuals with an added $100 weekly payment in addition to the Federal Pandemic Unemployment Compensation ($300) weekly payment

Who is eligible?

- 1) Must have received at least $5,000 of self-employment income in the most recent taxable year prior to the individual's application for regular unemployment benefits
- 2) Receiving an UI benefit (other than PUA) for which FPUC is payable
- 3) Submit documentation substantiating their self-employment income

What type of documentation of income must be submitted at the time of application?

- Tax documents: 1099, quarterly tax filings for base period

If the tax documents are not available, these alternative documents are acceptable:

- Paycheck stubs during the base period
- Business records during the base period
- Invoices or billing statements during the base period
- Written statement of contract work by the company for which claimant is a contractor
- Business bank statements during the base period

What are the programs dates?

MEUC is payable beginning with weeks of unemployment no earlier than weekending, January 2, 2021. The MEUC program expires on March 14, 2021. This means that the last payable week for MEUC is weekending, March 13, 2021.

Where do I go to apply for the MEUC program?

After you login to your UI account there is a section under My Account that says File for MEUC
